

Assiniboine Park Conservancy Announces Line-Up for 2025 Summer Entertainment Series presented by Casinos of Winnipeg

For immediate release: Winnipeg, June 4, 2025 – The Assiniboine Park Conservancy is excited to announce another stellar line-up of music, movies, wellness, and art as part of Assiniboine Park's 2025 Summer Entertainment Series presented by Casinos of Winnipeg, running from mid-June through August. The entire series is offered free to the public and made possible through sponsorship and donor support.

"We are looking forward to another glorious and fun-filled summer at the Park with this year's Summer Entertainment Series," said Laura Cabak, Director of Communications and Public Relations, Assiniboine Park Conservancy. "For over a decade, these shared experiences have brought people together in such a welcoming, memorable, and positive way. We are so grateful to our generous sponsors and donors who help make it all possible."

This year's schedule will kick off with a family-friendly Indigenous Peoples Day Celebration on Sunday, June 22 and a Canada Day Celebration on Tuesday, July 1.

Throughout July and August, visitors can enjoy open-air concerts at the Lyric Theatre and Performance Garden at The Leaf and jazz performances in the beautiful Leo Mol Sculpture Garden. Wellness Wednesdays will return to the Lyric Theatre in August along with Movies in the Park, which will run for four Fridays starting on August 1. Each movie night will include a family-friendly early feature at 6:30 p.m., followed by a blockbuster late feature at 8:45 p.m.

Park visitors can also enjoy free entry to the art galleries at The Pavilion and explore Winnipeg Art Gallery (WAG) curated exhibitions of renowned Manitoba artists Ivan Eyre and W.J. Phillips alongside the work of local artists in the Community Gallery.

Please see the attached schedule or visit the Park website for the full 2025 Summer Entertainment Series entertainment line-up. The schedule is subject to change and the most current version can always be found online at assiniboinepark.ca
